FOY & GIBSON'S WINTER FAIR BARGAINS

Edited by "G.G." in his sanctum at FOY & GIBSON PTY LTD., PERTH

Thrifty Citizens draw money from the bank to save at the Greatest Shopping Event of the Season.

Seasons come and seasons go, and to live we must have the usual amenities of life—food, clothes, household needs, comforts, entertainment. Some folk are easily satisfied and can manage on a small income, whilst others require a large proportion of life's comforts to make it even tolerable. But thousands of either class draw money from their banks, that they may reap the rewards of shopping safely and buying wisely at this feast of bargains.

Foy & Gibson's Winter Fair opens in July and is to thousands and thousands of citizens an announcement as important as the cable news of some thrilling event. Shopping to-day is far removed from a perfunctory duty; it causes either jubilation or regret. Those who shop confidently are much more likely to get what they need, to obtain it more expeditiously, than are they who shop with anxiety or distrust. Since 1896, the first year of Foy & Gibson's Fair, the public confidence has been sought and maintained. The selling policy of this great store is almost proverbial, and shoppers know that here they obtain what they need at prices kept consistently low, with high quality. This Fair is a clarion call to still greater savings.

Months ago we planned for this great event, and months ago our buyers were speeding across the Globe, placing orders on an immense scale. In the crowded streets of many industrial centres in Great Britain workers have learnt of this great Fair, for to them it meant employment; whilst in some small European hamlet, off the beaten tourist track, orders meant weeks of activity. In the sweltering tropics, in the Canadian forests, North, South, East, or West, our orders have speeded the "wheels of commerce." During the past weeks huge shipments have arrived from overseas and from the Eastern States, and the increasing volume of incoming goods is noticeable, particularly in "Gibsonia" Woollen Goods, Underwear, Blankets, Rugs, Dress Fabrics, Men's Wear, Suitings—all products of the famous "Gibsonia" Mills, the largest and best-equipped in the Commonwealth. All "Gibsonia" goods are to be sold at Winter Fair Prices—special bargains much sought after. Bought on a tremendous scale, and bought for cash, these wanted goods of every description are offered now. Here is a real chance, which it needs no superlatives to point out, and a genuine opportunity to save money is presented. An inspection of every article, large and small, fashionable or of everyday utility, reveals a bargain—yours for the choosing, either personally or through the pages of this "Gazette." Please place your orders now to avoid disappointment, though we have made every endeavour to facilitate despatch, even to an augmented staff, which, dealing entirely with Country Residents' orders, will be kept hard at it to cope with the tremendous rush of business. Ladies and Gentlemen, come to the Fair, if possible—if not, use the nearest Post Box early!

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Conducted Monthly by Uncle Gib.

My Dear Nieces and Nephews:

Fair-time again! "The Gazette" pages are devoted to bargains of special interest to mother. Newsy Notes, Home Hints, and the conclusion of a trip to the South Coast ports are held over until the August issue. Many of my little friends of the Correspondence Classes (Education Department) will regret to learn that Mr. Eakins, Principal of the Classes, has been an inmate of Warwick Hospital, Perth. Uncle Gib was delighted to find Mr. Eakins well on the road to recovery, and is sure all join in wishing the Principal a speedy convalescence. In a book entitled "MacRobertson Aoroad" the following article, regarding the town of Jacla, Colombia (where Master M. D. George, one of our correspondents, resides), appears:—"I have been keen to see a coconut works in full swing, so it was decided that we motor out to Negombo—26 miles—take lunch at the rest house there, calling in and seeing a coconut plant at work on the way out. In due course we arrive at St. Nicholas' coconut plant, where thousands of coconuts were stored. The natives take the green coconuts and deftly remove the outer fibre, and the coconut, in its shell, is passed on to another batch of men, who, with a very small hammer and hatchet, chip off the hard shell, and do not break the inner coconut fruit. Then, with a tool like a spokeshave, the women peel off the brown skin from the nut, and the peeled nuts are thrown into tanks of clean, running water. The nuts are then passed into a double disc machine, and this, travelling at a speed of 3,000 revolutions per minute, desiccates the coconut. It is then fed on to metal trays and passed through an oven, and comes out at the other end in less than half-an-hour, almost bone dry. It is beautifully white. Cases lined with metal are waiting to receive the white desiccated coconut, and I learned that a ton of coconuts, or any given quantity, is ready for packing in less than two hours after the nuts are opened. The factory I saw is very up-to-date, and, to my mind, there was little room for improvement. These works are in the town of Jacla." With kind regards to you all, cheerio,

Uncle Gib

BERTHA BLECHYNDEN — "Glentulloch," via Bridgetown

Dear Uncle Gib,—I hope you will accept me as a new link. I am fourteen years old, and in the seventh class at school. I live just on two miles from school, but every morning I meet our teacher at the gate which leads into our place. In the afternoons I also get a ride as far as the gate. Our teacher has been sick for four weeks now, and will not be coming to teach this week, either; so that means a good holiday for the pupils. Every night and morning I milk two cows. The rest of the day I spend inside helping my mother; but sometimes I go and help my father, too. When is your birthday? Mine is on the 29th of November. "The Boy's Essay on Girls," which John Foxton sent in last month, is not bad, and the last two lines are quite true (at our school, anyway). We have a big ginger cat which weighs about eleven pounds; he is a good mouser and sometimes he catches rabbits. We have also a kelpie dog, which is very playful. I am sending some riddles to you, if you care to publish them, and space will allow it. I like reading the interesting letter, which you write to your nieces and nephews every month. I also like reading the letters which they write to you. Well, uncle, I must close for this time, hoping to get a letter from you very soon, accepting me as one of your nieces.

MEMBERS OF THE CORNER GREET YOU IN PICTURES

No. 1—John Arthur Cook, of Mogumber, when 2 years and 8 months old, having a sun bath. John is a great-great-grandson of Henry William Leeder, who landed at Rockingham in the year 1820, off the ship Rockingham.

No. 2—Bert Counsel reminds us that the land is the basis of all wealth, and here is a scene at Buntine.

No. 3—Pictures Bert Counsel's brother.

Nos. 4, 6, and 8—are supplied by Gladys Head, of Gabalong. To-day, who recently returned from a trip to the Murray River. These snaps depict—No. 4, fruit racks; No. 6, a pond on the Murray River; No. 8, Lock, Mildura.

No. 5—Peter Moncrieff, of Forest Grove, via Busselton, sends a picture, and Peter and his friends are winners of the shield shown.

No. 7—Lily Hambly sends a snap of George and Doreen. Lily resides at Kundip, between Hopetoun and Ravensthorpe.

H. MICHAEL DE SILVA

Kandana, Ceylon

Dear Uncle Gib,—I am very sorry to inform you that one of my letters, which told you about the Colombo tramway strike, has not been published in the "Gazette," and I am very anxious to know why we haven't received our "Gazette" yet. Now it is our summer season, and we have already begun our month of May. In this month all the flower trees are full of scented blossoms. Dear uncle, I think the following news will be interesting and delightful for you; that is: A mistress, who often writes to me, told me that she and her husband would come to see me when they come to pay a visit to Ceylon. So, dear uncle, as there is nothing else to say, I close my letter, wishing you and your nephews and nieces every blessing.

Some Good Sayings of Wise Men:

But, remember! you can't both eat your cake and have your cake. Better to hunt in fields for health abundant, than fee the doctor for a grievous draught. Sometimes a book is only one part of a schoolroom. What is learned twice is best remembered. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of care. The little foolery that wise men do often makes a show. Little deeds of kindness, little words of love, make this earth an Eden, like the Heaven above. He that goes a-borrowing goes a-sorrowing.

Little strokes fell great oaks. Early to bed means early to rise; makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise. "Age quod agis" means, do what you are doing.

The Golden Rules

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.—Christian. One should seek for others the happiness one desires for oneself.—Buddist. Do as you would be done by.—Persian. Do not that to a neighbour which you would take ill from him.—Grecian. What you would not wish to yourself, do not unto others.—Chinese. He sought for others the good he desired for himself; let him pass on.—Egyptian. Sent in by H. Michael de Silva, Kandana.

PETER MONCRIEFF

Forest Grove, via Busselton

Dear Uncle Gib,—I received your ever-welcome letter last Friday. We had a holiday all last week, and, for worse luck, I am sorry to say I had a very sore foot. Also there were pictures at Witchcliffe about four weeks ago. I will send some photos, this time. The one with the one shield is the team; the other is the picture of the whole school. Would you please forward them back after you have finished with them. I must close now because I have to bathe my foot. So cheerio, uncle.

BERT COUNSEL

Buntine

Dear Uncle Gib,—I suppose you thought I had forgotten you when I did not write to you. On Saturday the football season opened and Buntine beat Dalwallinu by a point. The scores were Buntine, 6 goals 7 points; Dalwallinu, 6 goals 6 points. At night there was a concert and it proved very successful, about £14 10s. being taken on the door. Next week the Buntine Football Club are playing Maya, at Buntine. Our teacher has gone down to Perth, and won't be back until Tuesday. I am enclosing two photos, one of my brother sitting on a chair, and another of my brothers cutting the wheat for hay. Well, uncle, I will have to close now.

G. V. COOK

Mogumber

Dear Uncle Gib,—Please find enclosed snap of John, taken some years ago, while living at Gingin. For the last two and a half years I have been acting as teacher, so have very little time for the camera. When he is older, I will hand it over to John. He will be able to get some interesting snaps for you.

COLIN COOPER

Westward Ho, Bramley

Dear Uncle Gib,—Do you think you could squeeze me into your Corner, as my sister Emily has gone away for a holiday? I am eleven years of age, and would like a friend to write to me. I write to you. Will you kindly send me the "Gibsonia Gazette," as Emily has left the Corner and will not want it any more. I have two cows of my own, which are both in calf. Their names are Peggy and Wendy. Peggy has had about four calves, but Wendy hasn't had any yet. I have milked Peggy for about two years, and am an expert milker. Well, I must close now, hoping you will accept me as one of the nephews of your happy band.

THE GREATEST SHOPPING EVENT OF THE SEASON

LILY HAMSLY

Dear Uncle Gib,—Just a few lines hoping you are well. Thank you for your letter. I did not see my letter in the last "Gazette," but the two snaps were in. We are having a nice lot of rain and the crops that are up look nice. There will be plenty of feed now for the sheep. We have only one pet lamb, so far. We call him Johnnie. They are catching a few fish in Hopetoun now. I think John Foxton's essay on girls is a bit too bad, but perhaps he is like all the boys when he wants anything done, like my two brothers—the girls are good-oh. I am enclosing a snap of George and Doreen—she is feeding Pat, the calf, with a bottle. George has just killed a fowl. Please send the snap back when you have finished with it. We have been having very cold weather here lately. I am looking forward to the next "Gazette" to read about your trip on the s.s. Kybra. I do a lot of fancy work, now. I read also. Dad has only one horse in now; he turned the others out. He is working the tractor. I am enclosing my cousin's address you asked for in your last letter. No more news. Cheerio.

GLADYS HEAD

Dear Uncle Gib,—I now take the pleasure of writing these few lines to you. I hope you are in the best of health, as this leaves me O.K. I had a very nice time over in the Eastern States. I saw a lot of different places, also the Murray River; and went across it to the N.S.W. border. There are some very nice fruit gardens. I got some very nice snaps of different places. I am sending you some, uncle, to put in the corner, as just about everybody gets "G.G." There are a half-dozen. They are a bit big this time as they were taken with another camera, but I don't think it will matter. I had a good trip on the trans. train. It is lovely to go over on. I would go again, if I had the chance. When we went it was February and very dusty in places; but that's no thing—we have dust here, too. Well, uncle, the crops are coming up good-o. Some are four inches in height already. It is very boggy here now; it has been raining all yesterday and to-day. I forgot to tell you about the mushrooms. I was out the other day and got a billy-full. I might go again now as the rain has come. Uncle, I think I had better close my letter. I am sorry

Kundip

I never wrote to you while I was away, but going everywhere I was unable to write, so excuse me this time. I went for a holiday and I had it; so good-bye.

JACK WOLFE

Dear Uncle Gib,—Just a few lines to let you know I am still alive. We are still digging our hill potatoes. We have about seven hundred bags so far. Will you please send me one of your latest catalogues? I have not shot any rabbits for the last two or three months. Is it very wet up there, uncle? We have had a few wet days down here. Well, uncle, I think I will close now, as it is bed-time.

CHRIS. HADDRILL

Dear Uncle Gib,—It is a long time since I have written, so I made up my mind just now to write. I hope you and your nieces and nephews are all O.K. I have a slight cold now—I've had it for three weeks. Thank you for the last "Gazette." I found it very interesting, as I always do. The grass is all nice and green now. The mushrooms will soon be finished—you have to tramp the paddocks a good deal to find many. Our oranges and pomegranates are ripe, and I have lovely feeds every day. I have two cows to milk now, and one heifer calf to feed. The cows are a tie. Sometimes I would like to go out, but I have to stay home to milk. Sometimes my eldest sister milks them for me; then I can go out. I am going to the pictures in Guildford to-night, with the bus. It runs every Thursday night. Well, uncle, I think I will close now, as I'm in a hurry to catch the bus.

P.S.—Will you please send the "Gibsonia Gazette" to Miss Mary Pasmore, Gosnells.

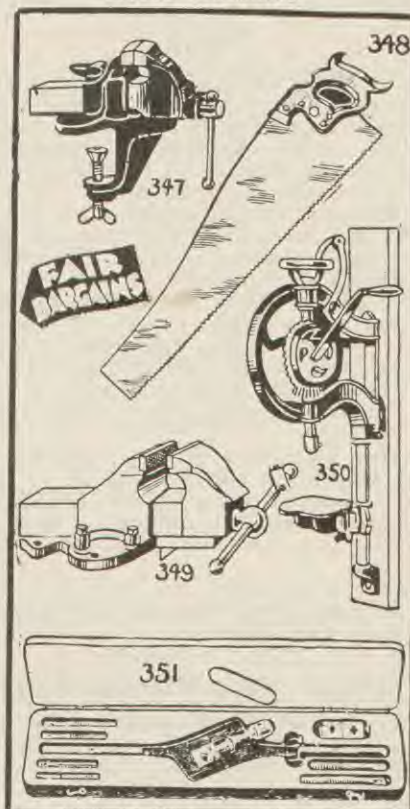

RIDDLES

Q—What boat is like a knife? A—A cutter.

Becoming Smart Fitting
Toque Hat Fair Price 22/6

G38—Best Quality Felt in a Smart Close Fitting Toque of deep mushroom. The double turn up to one side, faced with silk velour and graduated brim, gives this shape a French-like effect. The pretty ornament completes the smartness. Fair Price 22/6

Smart Shape in Maize
Felt Fair Price 24/6

G39—A Becoming Little Shape in Maize Felt, neatly banded with nigger brown Petersham ribbon, finished with pretty bow effect and small buckle; pleated side and small design of inlet ribbon piping on crown makes this a charming shape for present wear. Fair Price 24/6

HOME-SPUN FUR FELT HAT

G40—An English Homespun Fur Felt, of cedar toning, stitched in Vandyke pattern on crown and nigger brown Petersham ribbon to finish. This drooped brim is very much in vogue and is most suitable for sports wear. Can be had in shades of slate, grey, and fawn. Fair Price, 16/6

ADMIRABLE WEAR, WITH DROOPING BRIM — 24/6

G41—A Smart Toning of Fawn and Black Felt, with drooping brim, prettily finished with pointed inlets of black felt on crown. The studded buckle and neatly arranged ends on brim add distinction to the whole effect. Fair Price, 24/6

Styles G31 to G33 are three typical examples of the new favoured shapes this winter. Featured in high grade French fur felt of fine light weight quality they are exceedingly popular modes this season. Many becoming shapes, shades, and head fittings are presented; they will cause quite a sensation at this exceptionally keen Fair Price 19/6

Styles G34 to G36 feature a group of charming shapes in high-grade English Wool Felts. An excellent variety of dainty shades and head fittings to choose from, in popular shades of black, navy, fawn, cedar, brown, saxe, and red. Fair Price, 10/6
